

Sue Park

Sue Park is a photographer based in Los Angeles and the director of Shatto Gallery. A graduate of the New York Institute of Photography and Seoul National University, Park began her photography career in the 1990s. Park's work, often inspired by landscapes and intricate patterns, reflects her deep appreciation for beauty that transcends words, blending memories with a passion for the present and future. Her mission is to capture fleeting moments of beauty and make them eternal. She has had numerous solo exhibitions, including "Sue Park's Photography" in Moscow, "Sue Park's Trajectories" in Uzbekistan, and "Sounds of Silence" in Italy. In addition to her exhibitions, she has published several books, including Anthology of Light (2024) and Monovision (2021). Park has won numerous prestigious awards, including "Photographer of the Year" from the International Photography Awards.
